REPLY TO OFFICE COMMUNICATION OF MARCH 3, 2010

In response to the Requirement for Information under 37 CFR §1.105 mailed March 3, 2010, the undersigned provides an answer to the interrogatory eliciting information “of precisely which portions of the originally filed disclosure provide the written description and enablement support for each limitation of newly added claims 93-96.”

The undersigned called Examiner Truong on May 27, 2010 and asked Examiner Truong which portions of claims 93 – 96 are subject to the Requirement for Information. Examiner Truong stated that the “corresponding active snippet link” and the “providing” limitations of claim 93 and the “corresponding active snippet link,” “generating in the search engine” and the “providing” limitations of claim 96 were subject to the Requirement for Information. Examiner Truong also stated that specifying which portions of the originally filed disclosure provide the written description and enablement support for each of these limitations would be fully responsive to the Requirement for Information.
